Students M.Sc. International Business, Course of the Introductory Phase (BWL)

Objectives & Content

Marketing is a complex business function that requires a balance of analytical and synthetic thinking. This course introduces a series of frameworks and tools that can be used to a) solve general business problems and b) develop specific marketing strategies and programs.

The course is oriented around understanding the three Cs (customers, company and competitors), developing a strategy for the chosen product/market(s), and translating this strategy into more specific plans through the elements of the marketing mix, the four Ps (product offering, pricing, promotion and physical distribution). Course materials are provided via Moodle.

Performance & Assessment criteria

Evaluation of performance will be based on a multiple choice exam (one correct answer per question). Please note that you need to register separately for the exam.

- 1- ≥ 88 %
- 2- ≥ 75 %
- 3- ≥ 63 %
- 4- ≥ 50 %
- 5- < 50%
